732. Paragraph 732 contains legal conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, UBS admits that Plaintiffs seek to recover attorneys' fees. UBS denies all remaining allegations in ¶ 732.

733. UBS denies the allegations contained in ¶ 733.

734. UBS admits that Plaintiffs request judgment in its favor. UBS denies all remaining allegations in ¶ 734.

UBS further states that to the extent that any allegation which is asserted in the Complaint (including headings, and the "Prayer for Relief") is not specifically admitted herein, such allegation is hereby expressly denied.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

UBS sets forth below its affirmative defenses. By setting forth these affirmative defenses, UBS does not assume the burden of proof for any issue, fact or element of a claim as to which applicable law places the burden on Plaintiffs.

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The Complaint, in whole or in part, fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable statute of limitations.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the equitable doctrines of laches, estoppel, waiver and unclean hands.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The Complaint fails to plead the circumstances constituting fraudulent concealment with the particularity required by Rule 9(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by Plaintiffs' lack of standing.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

To the extent that UBS is considered a co-conspirator in any antitrust conspiracy alleged by Plaintiffs, UBS withdrew from any such conspiracy.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, for failing to mitigate damages.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims and any damages, to the extent any exist, are barred, in whole or in part, by the federal statutes and regulations, and enforcement thereof, governing the investment of the proceeds of tax-exempt bonds.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiffs have not suffered injury in fact.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiffs have suffered no antitrust injury as the result of the alleged conduct because, among other reasons, it had no right to earn arbitrage on any investment of the proceeds from the issuance of tax-exempt bonds.

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because its alleged damages, if any, are too remote and/or speculative to allow recovery.

TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Any injury or damage to Plaintiffs, to the extent that any exist, was caused, in whole or in part, by the conduct of third parties for whom UBS was not responsible.

THIRTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

To the extent that Plaintiffs are deemed to have participated in the alleged anticompetitive scheme and/or misconduct, its claims are barred.

FOURTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The Complaint concerns conduct expressly or impliedly immune from the antitrust laws.

FIFTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Some of Plaintiffs' claims may be subject to forum-selection clauses.

SIXTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs have failed to allege facts sufficient to support a claim for attorneys' fees or costs.

SEVENTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent that any of the events alleged took place outside the state of California without impact on California residents.

EIGHTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs lack standing to prosecute its state antitrust claims, in whole or in part, under Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 16700, et seq.

NINETEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' cause of action for alleged violations of Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 16700, et seq. is barred, in whole or in part, because those statutes are inapplicable to alleged wrongs suffered by non-California residents based on alleged conduct of UBS occurring outside of California.

TWENTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Any award of treble damages, punitive damages and/or restitution pursuant to Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 16700, et seq., would violate the Excessive Fines and Due Process Clauses of the United States and California Constitutions.

TWENTY-FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims for attorneys' fees are barred by Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 1021.

TWENTY-SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

UBS adopts by reference all other applicable defenses asserted by all other parties.

TWENTY-THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

UBS hereby gives notice that it intends to rely upon such other defenses as may become available or appear during discovery proceedings in this case and hereby reserves the right to amend its Answer to assert any such defense.

JURY TRIAL DEMAND

UBS demands a trial by jury of all issues triable by a jury.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, UBS prays as follows:

1. That this action be dismissed with prejudice and that Plaintiffs take nothing by its Complaint;
2. That judgment be entered in favor of UBS and against Plaintiffs with respect to the causes of action asserted in the Complaint;
3. That the Court award UBS reasonable costs and expenses including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees and costs of suit; and
4. That the Court award such other relief as may be appropriate.
